

SCC's Continuing Education Scholarships for Students in Non-credit Courses

We welcome your interest in Southeast Community College's Continuing Education (CE) scholarships and wish you success as you pursue your personal and educational goals. Complete this application if you are in need of financial assistance for a noncredit course or workshop. The completed CE Scholarship application and non-credit course registration forms must be completed by the student to be considered for the CE Scholarship award.

Application deadlines are:

Two weeks before the course start date.

Scholarship awards

If approved and funds are available, the CE Scholarship will award 75% of the tuition up to $100. Extra fees and supplies are not eligible. CE scholarships are one-time awards, intended to help students take the next step in pursuing their personal or educational goals. Applicants will be notified of the Scholarship Committee's decision within 3-5 days of the start of class. Applicants must either accept or decline the scholarship upon notification of the award or forfeit the scholarship.
