

SPEAKERS:

Geri Hepp is currently the social service designee at Madonna. Hepp has extensive experience in advocacy, education, program development, and management. Geri's experience includes more than eight years as the State Long-term Care Ombudsman with the Nebraska Health and Human Services System, State Unit on Aging. In addition, she served as executive director during construction and the opening of the Parsons House on Eagle Run in Omaha, an assisted living and Alzheimer's care facility, and past vice president of programs for the Alzheimer's Association-Great Plains Chapter, providing leadership and direction for development, implementation and evaluation of the Chapter's programs and services in Nebraska, Kansas and Wyoming.

Teresa Stitcher Fritz is a long-time advocate for Alzheimer's patients and their families both in her work and personally. She has experienced care giving for persons with Alzheimer's disease through her family and has worked as educator and program director for the Alzheimer's Association. She has an extensive professional work history as an advocate for persons with developmental disabilities and physical disabilities. She has a bachelor's degree in special education and psychology from the University of Northern Colorado and a master's degree in management from Doane College.

DeEtta Vrana holds an Administrative Assisted Living License and has a genuine caring concern for the elderly. She has had experience in facility management including independent living, assisted living and memory care. Vrana currently serves as a board member for the Alzheimer's Association of The Great Plains, which is a personal passion as she experiences the stages of the disease with her mother. Vrana also is a member of the Nebraska Assisted Living Association, Coalition for Older Adult Health Promotion.

9 a.m.-3 p.m.

SCC Continuing Education Center
301 S. 68th St. Place
Lincoln, NE • Room 303

Tuition $59 (Lunch provided)
5.0 contact hours

PURPOSE:

This workshop is designed to help professionals and others understand the principles, benefits and importance of person-centered care as it relates to the MDS 3.0. Participants will discuss and practice communication techniques to build successful relationships with residents, families and co-workers. Participants will learn to analyze challenging behaviors, identify triggers and practice interventions to minimize behaviors. Resources to assist participants in providing quality, person-centered dementia care will be provided.

This workshop is designed for health care professionals (nursing home or assisted living administrators, nurses and nurse aides, social workers, dietary staff, in-home care providers) and others interested in learning about how to care for someone with dementia.

5.0 contact hours for nurses and nursing home administrators. Other health care professionals should check with their licensing agencies to verify that this workshop will count as continuing education in their field.

Southeast Community College Continuing Education Division is an approved provider of continuing nursing education by the Nebraska Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center Commission on Accreditation.

AUDIENCE:

Designed for health care professionals: Nursing home or assisted living administrators, nurses, social workers, nursing assistants and other care providers are welcome.
