

Gravestone Symbolism

Clues Carved in Stone

The artwork and symbols carved on gravestones can be very helpful to genealogists and historians. The names and symbols were usually carved deeper than the dates and epitaphs, so these are often the only legible items on an old gravestone. These symbols can provide much information about the person buried there, such as age, gender, religious affiliations, financial status, and membership in various organizations.

This presentation will cover the meanings of many common symbols found on gravestones, and will explain how gravestone symbolism has evolved over time.

The second part of the workshop will be held at Wyuka Cemetery. Transportation to Wyuka Cemetery is on your own. While touring the cemetery, several symbols will be identified and explained. Other cemetery related information will be discussed, such as tips for photographing gravestones and how to record gravestone inscriptions.

Tuition includes workshop materials and continental breakfast. Field trip will run rain or shine so please dress appropriately for the weather. Transportation to Wyuka Cemetery, 3600 O St., is on your own.

Beth Santore is a seven-year member of the Association for Gravestone Studies. She has served on the AGS Board of Trustees since June 2007. She resides in the Victorian Village area of Columbus, Ohio.

Beth has had an interest in gravestones since her childhood. In January 2003, she created the Grave Addiction website (www.graveaddiction.com) as a way to share her hobby with others. The site contains information and photos of cemeteries from several states, with a focus on Ohio. As a result of the Web site, she has been invited to speak about gravestone symbolism and history at many libraries, schools, genealogical societies and historical societies. She enjoys speaking with these groups and sharing information that can help others with their cemetery research.
