Spring 2024

NOTE: These classes are conversational in nature. These are non-credit and will not transfer to any credit program.

NEW! German Film Night

Let's get together and watch classic German-made films (with English subtitles) and discuss. Expand our horizons, experience cultural differences, characters, and share our thoughts.

Dana Hanley, our German instructor, will lead this fun class series.

The Role of the Interpreter & Translator

Prerequisite: Completion of secondary education (high school) AND an average score of the four components of 106 or above on the ESL Accuplacer Test taken within the last three years. Attend orientation on March 19. For complete information, go to southeast.edu/business-and-community/community/personal-interest/interpreter-training.php.

This practice-oriented course will immediately immerse you in focused discussions, lectures and problem-solving activities that highlight the everyday issues faced in interpreting. The goal of the course is to educate you about ethical behavior: what it means to be a "professional" and how these key proficiencies play an integral role in being a skilled and competent interpreter.

This course will lay the foundation for additional SCC interpreter training courses. Required materials are available in the SCC Campus Store, 8800 O St., Lincoln, or at sccbookstore.com and must be purchased before the first class.
