

EFFECTIVE CHARGE NURSE CONFERENCE

The role of the Charge Nurse is key to providing leadership at the "point of care." However, most charge nurses, when asked about their role, responsibility, accountability, and authority within their organization, lacked confidence not only in these areas, but other areas as well.

Please join us as we dialogue, discover approaches and provide interactive activities that will ensure success in the Charge Nurse role.

Objectives: At the conclusion of this program, participants will be able to:

- Discuss the role of a Charge Nurse
- Review current literature regarding the Charge Nurse role
- Identify and discuss the attributes and traits of a Charge Nurse
- Identify and discuss the responsibilities of a Charge Nurse
- Practice Interactive activities to apply in the workplace

6.0 contact hours awarded to nurses. For other health care professionals, check with your licensing agencies to verify that this workshop will count as continuing education in your field. Participants must attend the entire workshop to receive credit.

Speaker: Sue Hill, RN-BC, is a certified gerontological nurse and national Green House Educator. Sue has more than 35 years of experience in the health care field, in a variety of roles, including former director of Corporate Education for Tabitha Health Care Services and community presenter of motivational, spiritual, cultural, and health-related training and workshops.

Comments from Past Participants:

"Sue was an excellent speaker. She was very knowledgeable on the subject matter and had a lot of life situations that related to the content!"

"Sue is a great lecturer, she keeps the class interesting, providing valuable information."

"First workshop I've been to that I didn't want to end early. I agree, this could definitely be made into a class."
