GLASS CRAFTING

NEW! More Glass Creations

This class provides continued exploration in the creation of functional glass. Explore the possibilities available for the creation of windows, plates, bowls, vases, and more. Each student will select what they want to make. Glass is extremely flexible and there are an infinite number of possibilities to create.

Class size is limited to allow for hands on, individual instruction. Material will be available during class and costs (payable in class) will be assessed depending on project choice (ranging from $75-$150). Taught by the owner/artist of River View Glass, Jim Aden. This class is taught in a working glass studio.

NEEDLE CRAFTS

Rag Rug Making

Jo Ella wants you to help her preserve the lost art of rug crocheting! You will learn the process of making a rag rug from the beginning, including preparing the material in strips for crocheting. Each participant will go home with their own homemade rug or at least a good start on one.

Once registered for this fun class, contact Cindy Meyer at the Learning Center at Nebraska City at 402-323-3636 to find out how to prepare your fabric strips to save valuable class time for the actual project. Bring to class: one size Q hook (or purchase one from the instructor), ruler, scissors, 2-3 old bed sheets and a sack lunch!
