

History

NEW! Arbor Day in Brownville!

Celebrate Arbor Day in Brownville at the home of J. Sterling Morton's bestie, Governor Furnas. Explore the history of where the tree planting really took off and discover the unique friendship between the second governor of Nebraska, Robert Wilkenson Furnas, and Nebraska's first Secretary of Agriculture, J. Sterling Morton. Walking tour includes a visit to Governor Furnas' home, exploration of the arboretum plantings along the Furnas Trail and a tree seedling to take home. A great way to start off your Arbor Day weekend!

Understanding Military Leadership

What's the difference between Sergeant and Captain? Let's break down the basics. While learning about the differences between enlisted military personnel and officer personnel, individuals will acquire an understanding of the different military ranks and how leadership is developed through ranking progression. Become acquainted with basic principles and how leadership is taught and developed. You will leave with a new-found knowledge on different military avenues designed to help reach these goals while in the military.

Classes is offered via distance technology from York.
