Learning the Dulcimer

Find fellowship, fun and an understanding of how to play the Dulcimer in this informal educational setting. Students will learn the history of Dulcimer, advanced melody and chords, all while learning a new lifelong hobby.

No musical experience is necessary. A Dulcimer will be provided for each student to use in class. Forrest and Eileen Smith have been teaching Dulcimer since 1996. Their mission has been to create opportunities for everyone to learn to play the Mountain Dulcimer.

Yes, You Can Be a Star at SCC

This is an opportunity for you to experience what it's like to be part of a theater production, either on stage or as a member of the backstage crew. Participants will learn skills in acting and technical theater. They will have the opportunity to perform live in a theater production.

This is a non-credit opportunity to perform in a production with theater students from SCC. This class may require additional rehearsals prior to performance. No pre-registration is necessary for auditions, participants can simply show up during designated time. Upon acceptance for the performance, non-credit students will need to register and submit payment for theater instruction and production. For registration deadline, audition dates and class questions, contact Dr. Jon Gruett, instructor, at 909-913-7284 by Jan. 3. NOTE: No class Jan. 20.

Non-credit students will have the opportunity to perform the following events:

One-on-One Voice Lessons

Students will learn the basics of vocal technique, style, expression, artistry, performance, and audition preparation through one-on-one apprentice-style vocal instruction. All levels of music-lovers are welcome to come and improve their singing skills. Styles include classical, sacred, musical theater, and pop. Music reading skills will be offered, if needed, to help with the essentials of musicianship.

Repertoire selection will be made by student and instructor together. Dr. Jon Gruett has more than 35 years of experience as an instructor in academia and professional music theater. After registration, a college representative will contact you to discuss your training needs. Training is scheduled at a time convenient for the student and instructor.
