

A-4 POLICY Non-voting Representatives

Full-Time faculty

One non-voting participant of the Board.

Representatives will serve a two-year term.

Elected by full-time faculty (faculty association) through open nomination during regularly scheduled College hours.

Election coordination by recognized bargaining unit of full-time faculty.

In the event of a temporary vacancy, e.g., a necessary absence from the campus, an alternate faculty representative may be requested by the Faculty Association. Such request shall be made in writing to the Board Chair, in consultation with the President.

In the event of a permanent vacancy, the succeeding faculty representative shall be elected in the same manner for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Student Body

One non-voting representative of the Board.

Student Senate President of campus hosting Board meeting (an alternate Student Senate representative if the campus Student Senate President is unavailable.)

Attendance at off-campus meetings will be one of the Student Senate Presidents.

Except for the vote, the faculty representative and the student body representative shall have all Board privileges including receipt of all Board meeting materials, permission to recommend agenda items, membership on Board teams, and reimbursement for all Board-related costs.

Participation in executive sessions of the Board by non-voting members representatives shall be at the discretion of the Board Chair.

Non-voting representatives shall observe all rules and regulations pertaining to regularly elected voting members of the Board.

Absences from class caused by the designated non-voting student representative's attendance at Board meetings shall be excused by instructors.
