

E-3c(1)      PROCEDURE Evaluation

A function of evaluation is to improve staff performance and service to customers. In the majority of instances, evaluation provides positive support for staff members. Evaluation also provides a method to identify areas for improvement and to initiate a program to assist the staff member to improve.

The Vice President for Human Resources will have the responsibility for implementing the evaluation system adopted by the Board of Governors.

---

Adopted Date: 07/15/1997