Native American Flute
This class will begin with a brief history of the Native American Flute and continue with a demonstration of how the flute works. Students will learn how to correctly hold the flute, the importance of breath control, and how to use finger holes. Using written music also will be discussed.

Cost includes instruction, five-hole red cedar flute with bag, instruction book, and CD. No prior knowledge of music is needed.

One-on-One Voice Lessons
Students will learn the basics of vocal technique, style, expression, artistry, performance, and audition preparation through one-on-one apprentice-style vocal instruction. All levels of music-lovers are welcome to come and improve their singing skills. Styles include classical, sacred, musical theater, and pop. Music reading skills will be offered, if needed, to help with the essentials of musicianship.

Repertoire selection will be made by student and instructor together. Dr. Jon Gruett has more than 35 years of experience as an instructor in academia and professional music theater. After registration, a college representative will contact you to discuss your training needs. Training is scheduled at a time convenient for the student and instructor.

Learning the Dulcimer
Find fellowship, fun and an understanding of how to play the Dulcimer in this informal educational setting. Students will learn the history of Dulcimer, advanced melody and chords, all while learning a new lifelong hobby.

No musical experience is necessary. A Dulcimer will be provided for each student to use in class. Forrest and Eileen Smith have been teaching Dulcimer since 1996. Their mission has been to create opportunities for everyone to learn to play the Mountain Dulcimer.
