Federal regulations require students to meet Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) standards in order to receive federal financial aid.

SAP has three (3) components. A student must:

1. Successfully complete 66.7% of all attempted credit hours,
  2. Maintain a 2.0 cumulative grade point average (GPA) or higher, and
  3. Complete your program of study within 150% of the minimum credit hours required for your program.
- This includes earned transfer credit hours and all credit hours attempted at SCC.

SAP calculations use a higher GPA if your program requires a higher standard.

If you fail to meet any of the criteria listed above, you are ineligible for financial aid.

You have the right to appeal your ineligibility if you experienced unforeseen, significant, and documentable extenuating circumstances. An extenuating or unforeseen circumstance is a significant life experience where the situation or outcome was beyond your control, could not be predicted or planned, and prevented you from succeeding academically.

The list, below, are examples of extenuating circumstances and suggested documentation. Documentation of your circumstances is required. Appeals received without documentation will not be considered. The Appeals Committee reserves the right to request additional documentation. Your appeal and the supporting documentation will remain confidential.

Examples of Extenuating Circumstances and Documentation
Medical illness, injury, or disability	Documentation from the attending doctor or hospital
Death of an immediate family member	Obituary notice or funeral program. An explanation of your relationship to the deceased and the effect the death had on your ability to be academically successful.
Divorce or separation	Divorce decree, letter from an attorney, or signed statement from a counselor or therapist
Military service	Copy of military orders, or DD-214
Legal issues or police matters	Copy of court documents or police reports

In the case of a Maximum Timeframe suspension, notate what caused you to go over the allotted hours for your program, and submit corresponding documentation.

The following are examples of circumstances that are not acceptable for an appeal. These include, but are not limited to:

Your need for financial aid	You did not like the instructor
Lack of knowledge of SAP standards	You did not know what major to choose
You did not know what classes to register for	You stopped attending classes
You were too young/immature or not focused/committed to your education	You have already used the circumstance or documentation for a previous appeal

APPEAL PROCESS

All appeal documents must be submitted to the Financial Aid Office between the submit date and the deadline date for the term in which you are requesting reinstatement of your financial aid. Appeals will not be processed if they are submitted early or late. Incomplete appeals will not be considered.

A complete appeal includes all of the following:

1. The current Financial Aid Appeal form, signed by the student.
2. A written statement identifying your Extenuating Circumstances AND submission of the supporting documentation. If this is a subsequent appeal, the Extenuating Circumstances and supporting documentation must be different from prior appeals. You must also explain why you were unable to adhere to your prior appeal commitment.
3. A written Corrective Action statement explaining what has changed in your situation that will help you to be academically successful.
4. Your Financial Aid advisor will contact you if an Academic Plan is needed. In that case, you will develop your Academic Plan with your Financial Aid advisor.

Note: The Extenuating Circumstances and Corrective Action statements must be two (2) separate, typed or legibly written statements and must contain enough detail for the Review Committee to make an informed decision regarding your status.

Please attach your two (2) statements to this form.

Address all terms of academic difficulty, including course withdrawals contributing to your current status. SCC looks at all terms of enrollment.

If your appeal is due to Maximum Timeframe, address why you have not been able to complete your degree or diploma requirements. If the Maximum Timeframe is due to a second degree or change in program, please explain why you are seeking a second or new degree/diploma.
