MANAGING PEOPLE & PROJECTS

Almost Painless: Change Management

New technologies and the globalization of markets and competition are creating more business opportunities, and hazards, than ever before. In response, firms large and small (perhaps yours among them) have labored mightily to transform themselves into better competitors by fundamentally changing the way they do business. Sadly, to date, 70 percent of these change initiatives have failed! As a manager, you're expected to plan and drive the change needed to ensure your organization's long-term survival. This fast-paced, interactive, one-day workshop has been designed to help you hone the knowledge, skills and attitudes you'll need to meet this responsibility.

A certificate of professional development and 0.7 CEUs will be awarded for successfully completing this class. One hour for lunch on your own. Registration deadline Oct. 29. Class is live-streamed from Lincoln.

Finding Peace: Managing & Resolving Conflict

Constructive conflict can increase performance, but destructive conflict can destroy productivity and morale. In this program participants learn how to recognize different types of conflict and how to resolve them before they become destructive. This program will explore five modes people use in dealing with conflict and how to determine when each mode is most appropriate/least appropriate. Participants will learn and practice a six-step collaborative process for resolving conflict.

A certificate of professional development and 0.7 CEUs will be awarded for successfully completing this class. One hour for lunch on your own. Registration deadline Nov. 12.

Your Role as a Supervisor

Supervisors are a critical link to enhancing the productivity and performance of the whole team. Understanding what it means to supervise will help you develop the skills to succeed. This program builds skills and confidence by providing supervisors with specific tools and techniques to implement in "the real world" and time to develop a specific action plan.

A certificate of professional development and 0.7 CEUs will be awarded for successfully completing this class. One hour for lunch on your own. Registration deadline Oct. 22. Class is live-streamed from Lincoln.

Critical Thinking in Today's Workplace

Because the quality of our thinking affects the quality of our lives, critical thinking is integral to all that we do. In today's workplace, critical thinking (the power to comprehend, analyze and evaluate) makes all the difference. This course will examine the role and challenges of critical thinking at work, spotlight wicked obstacles to our thinking and fallacies that can derail you and identify actions to develop your own and others' critical thinking to help you: spot flaws in arguments that others accept without question; find creative, workable solutions where others see only problems; clearly articulate your position; make quicker informed decisions; and take a confident stand for yourself. Some key topics include: Role of critical thinking at work; obstacles to critical thinking, identifying flaws in thinking; using critical thinking; to take informed action; skills, tools and strategies for critical thinking; and fostering critical thinking at work.

A certificate of professional development and 0.6 CEUs will be awarded for successfully completing this class. One hour for lunch on your own. Registration deadline Oct. 29.
