Building a Website Using Content Management

Prerequisite: Basic Computer (OFFT-3502) or equivalent experience

Are you interested in building a website for your small business, but lack the technical or design skills to create an attention-getting site? This course will teach you how to create a website using products such as WordPress or WIX. The templates do not require coding skills or special software. You will learn website design basics and how to build the home page and a content page.

An internet connection and your imagination is all that is required.
