WINTER PERENNIAL GARDENING FOR NEWBIES & VETERANS ALIKE

Love gardening and really don't want to stop for three months of winter? This series of Zoom classes helps you to feed your addiction, so you never have to experience gardening withdrawal! Regardless of how much or little you have gardened, there is always something new to learn that can surprise us all. You will need to register for class, download the Zoom app on your computer or tablet and wait for your Zoom class link to arrive in your email a couple days before class.

NEW! Using Microsoft OneNote to Document Your Gardening Ideas & Knowledge

Remember keeping diaries or journals? Some people write faithfully, and others tire of the writing quickly. Finding a passage you wrote way back when means pouring through pages and pages of entries before you find it again. But what if there was an easier (and more fun) way to keep track of your gardening notes? OneNote can do this, and it comes free with every installed version of Microsoft Office! All you need is to be very comfortable with a computer, and you will love this class.

NEW! Types of Perennial Gardens

What type of garden interests you? We will examine eight different types of gardens in this session and we are sure you will find one or more to pique your fancy. Butterfly, pollinator, Woodland, Native Perennial, Full Sun, Half Sun, Shade, and a little bit of anything and everything. What will you choose?

NEW! Types of Perennial Plants

What kinds of perennials will you finally choose to fill your garden? Some gardeners want plants that pop up monthly from March through November. Some want lots of tall plants, round plants, flat plants, red plants, blue plants, pink, yellow and orange plants. Do you need some that will remind you of a grandparent or other family member or friend? The choice is yours.

NEW! Winter Pruning: Working with Bushes & Small Trees

Amazingly, the end of winter is one of the best times to trim back scraggly bushes, smaller trees, grasses, and even rose bushes. We'll look at some ideas to start getting you outside if winter is just not going away fast enough for you. And it's a great time to get these chores done before you start really playing outside with your perennials in April!

NEW! Gardening by the Month

Get out your calendars as we will track gardening tasks to consider for every month of the year. Everyone will have certain tasks in common, while some tasks will be unique based on your choices of plants and garden types. This will be especially useful in getting ready for the busiest season of all: Spring!

NEW! Recognizing & Avoiding Invasive & Noxious Plant Types

Have you ever regretted the day you bought that one cute little plant nestled in a three-inch pot? Has it taken over your yard no matter how many hours you have spent pulling it and nearly brought you to tears? For some reason plants are NEVER labeled "Invasive" to give you a heads up. This class will help you to identify what NOT to buy as you experiment buying new plants for your garden. No tears. Promise!

Show Your Door Some Love

Be the talk of the neighborhood! Grab your friends and join this great "make-and-take" class. Come and get inspired to paint your own fun and unique door sign.

There are many themes to choose from and you will need to preselect your sign two weeks prior to class then show up ready to have fun.

Some theme options are: school, camper, fall, Valentine, Winter, Husker/Nebraska, Spring (tulips, watering can etc.), initials, mason jar, flowers, fruit, etc.

You will receive an email around Feb. 15 with theme options and sample signs. You will be using paint so dress appropriately.

Doors & More will provide all materials, guidance and inspiration for the day.
