Buying, Selling & Evaluating Antiques, Coins & Collectibles

Join the fun! Learn about the “art” of making good buys and/or getting fair prices as a seller, where to learn more about collectibles, what’s hot and what’s not, and how to sell your antiques and coins.

Bring several items (or a mystery piece) for class discussion and a free appraisal. Tom is from Lincoln, a former president of Nebraska and Lincoln Coin Clubs and is a member of the New England Appraiser’s Association. He has more than 30 years of experience in appraising antiques and coins. In 1983, he conducted what is believed to be the largest antique appraisal in state history at the Pioneer Village in Minden.

NEW! The Secret of Portraits—Drawing Workshop

Teens and adults welcome. Have you ever wanted to learn to draw people? In this workshop you will start with pencil, a sheet of white paper and simple step-by-step instructions as you learn to draw what you see. These tools will allow you to get rid of preconceived ideas that come from childhood as to what an eye, nose or mouth looks like. Then, you will work from a quality black and white copy of your photo. Marcia will guide you with straightforward techniques that will build up your ability and the confidence you need to draw friends and family on your own!

Supply fee of $25 payable to instructor at class. Check or cash only for supplies. You are encouraged to bring a sack lunch for a half-hour break.

The Core of the Story

Give your readers a perfect escape by taking them on a journey. Your plot is the vehicle that brings them from point A to point B. This class will teach you how to create the roadmap your story needs, limit your loose ends and include all the expected beats and tropes in both romance and fantasy genres. Learn how to plot your character’s journey. The instructor has published works under various pen names in both romance and fantasy genres. She writes full time and is eager to share tips for writers to succeed.
