

Home & Garden

Winter 2022

Woodshop Open Workshop

Prerequisite: Some experience with power and hand tools
Have you ever dreamt of owning a laser cutter, planer, computer pneumatic controlled router, large sander, or a door machine, but can't justify the cost for your woodworking hobby? You will have access to some amazing woodworking equipment and an experienced instructor to guide you during these open workshop sessions.

Your self-selected project needs to be one that can reasonably be finished within the six-week timeframe. You will supply your own materials.

Using Microsoft OneNote to Create Your Own Gardening Journal

Remember keeping diaries or journals? Finding a passage, you wrote way back when means pouring through pages and pages of entries before you find it again. But what if there was an easier way to keep track of your gardening notes? OneNote can do this, and it comes free with every installed version of Microsoft Office! All you need is to be very comfortable with a computer, and you will love this class!

Types of Perennial Plants

What kinds of perennials will you finally choose to fill your garden? Some gardeners want plants that pop up monthly from March through November. Some want lots of tall plants, round plants, flat plants. Red plants; blue plants; pink, yellow and orange plants. Do you need some that will remind you of a grandparent or other family member or friend? Those are the best plants to include!

Recognizing & Avoiding Invasive & Noxious Plant Types

Have you ever rued the day you ever bought that one cute little plant nestled in a three-inch pot? Has it taken over your yard no matter how many hours you have spent pulling it and nearly brought you to tears? For some reason plants are never labeled "invasive" to give you a heads up. This class will help you to identify what NOT to buy as you experiment buying new plants for your garden.

Gardening by the Month

Get out your calendars as we will track gardening tasks to consider for every month of the year. Everyone will have certain tasks in common, while some tasks will be unique based on your choices of plants and garden types. This will be especially useful in getting ready for the busiest season of all: Spring!

Winter Pruning: Working with Bushes & Small Trees

Amazingly, the end of winter is one of the best times to trim back scraggly bushes, smaller trees, grasses, and even rose bushes. We'll look at some ideas to start getting you outside if winter is just not going away fast enough for you. And it's a great time to get these chores done before you start really playing outside with your perennials in April!
