

2022-2023 Dependency Override

Student Name: _____ SCC SID: _____

This form is for dependent students who do not meet the federal criteria for "independent" status, but wish to have their unique circumstances reviewed in order to be considered an independent student.

Students who are estranged from their parents due to extreme circumstances which can be documented by an objective third party (social service agency, pastor, counselor, etc.) may qualify for special consideration. An example of extreme circumstances is a student's voluntary or involuntary removal from their parents' home due to a situation that threatened the student's health and/or safety, and due to these conditions, parental support was terminated.

Self-sufficiency of the student, or the parental unwillingness to financially contribute to a student's education, is not sufficient reason for a dependency override.

To be considered for an initial Dependency Override, students must:

- _____ Complete a FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) online at <https://studentaid.gov>
- _____ Submit a signed detailed letter explaining why you should be considered independent for financial aid purposes. Describe the circumstances of the separation from your parent(s) and the current status of your relationship with them. Your relationship with each parent must be detailed. The information you provide will be kept confidential.
- _____ Provide any available supporting documentation such as court orders, death certificates, police reports, medical records, etc.
- _____ Submit a signed letter from a professional adult to verify the family circumstances you described in your personal statement. The letter must be signed and dated, be on letterhead, and must include his/her contact information. Professional adults include, but are not limited to: guidance counselors, doctors, family counselors, mental health professionals, job supervisors, or law enforcement officers.

Requests that do not include proper documentation and a 3rd party professional statement will be considered incomplete. All information must be submitted to The Office of Financial Aid within 30 days of this official request or it will be considered incomplete. Incomplete requests will be denied.

Students with a prior year Dependency Override approval at Southeast Community College must:

- Complete a FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) online at <https://studentaid.gov>
- Submit a signed statement describing the circumstances of the separation from your parent(s) and the current status of your relationship with them.
