

Long Term Care Practicum

This course focuses on the Administrator in Training (AIT)/Mentoring program as required for you to become licensed as Nursing Home Administrators. The course will prepare and support you for leadership roles within a long term care facility through a practicum experience.

You will be able to:

- Interpret the Administrator in Training process and start your application process for the AIT.
- Calculate and complete the required training hours as part of the licensure process.
- Apply leadership skills and recognize the importance of multidisciplinary team planning and communications.
- Prepare for NAB exam (National Association of Long Term Care Administrators Boards).
- Evaluate the role of leadership in long term care.
