History for Fun: Why Should We Care?

The study of history will make us better informed citizens by helping us know who we are. Discussion will center on historiography, sources of historical information and the revision of history. Questions of perspective and validity and how these relate to what is happening today in our world and locally will be discussed.

History for Fun: War of 1812 thru the Start of the American Civil War

The British burn Washington. The Americans burn Toronto. Native Americans and Mexico object to Manifest Destiny. And long-held differences of opinion take a nasty turn, as Plattsmouth joins in.

History for Fun: Inventing a Nation – Still

50% politics, 50% originality, and 50% human nature. It seemed to never add up, but it eventually worked. This session looks at interesting stories along the way and notes that some things never change.

History for Fun: The American Civil War

Lincoln assembles a team of rivals and runs through a long list of generals. Nebraska benefits (arguably more than any other territory or state) when Congress finally gets something done. Nebraska, especially Plattsmouth, fights rebels and Indians.
