NEW! Officiating 101: Emphasis on Basketball

The primary goal of this class is to help anyone (high school age to adult) become better prepared to be an official/referee/umpire. The emphasis will be on basketball, however, we also will touch on baseball and football. We will cover rules, mechanics, game management, game preparation, and also how to deal with coaches and fans. If gym availability allows, our last class will be spent on the court learning basic referee principles and positioning.
