Adding a Course after Initial Registration

16 week term (semester)

- Students may add classes during the first week of the term without faculty signature (either online or in person).
- Students may add classes during the second week of the term with a faculty signature. (Complete an Official Add/Drop form which can be found in the Registration & Records Office or on the Hub).
- Adding classes after the second week of the term requires the faculty AND the appropriate division dean or associate dean signatures.
- Complete Official Add/Drop forms must be submitted to the Registration & Records office to complete enrollment in the course.

For Any Term Shorter Than 16 weeks

- Students may add classes during the first day of the course and the day immediately following the first day, without a faculty signature (either online or in person).
- Students may add classes during the remainder of the first week in which the course begins, with a faculty signature. (Complete an Official Add/Drop form which can be found in the Registration & Records Office or on The Hub).
- Adding classes after the first week requires the faculty AND the appropriate division dean or associate dean signature.
- Complete Official Add/Drop forms must be submitted to the Registration & Records office to complete enrollment in the course.
