

NURSE EDUCATOR CONFERENCE 2025

The Future of Nursing Education: Smart Tools & Safe Spaces

This program, provided by NurseTim®, will provide educators with strategies for introducing Artificial Intelligence into nursing education and enhancing trauma informed teaching skills.

Learning Objectives:

Artificial Intelligence and Nursing Education Today:

1. Define artificial intelligence and its role in nursing education.
2. Explore AI-driven tools and applications in nursing education.
3. Discuss the benefits, challenges and ethical considerations of AI integration.
4. Identify practical strategies for introducing AI into nursing education.

Trauma-Informed Teaching:

1. Define trauma and its potential effects on students, nurse educators and the learning process.
2. Examine the prevalence of trauma and its significance in higher educational settings.
3. Identify how common signs of trauma in students are exhibited in classroom behavior.
4. Consider personal experiences of trauma and develop strategies for resilience and self-care as an educator.
5. Create methods to establish a supportive classroom environment, including stress-regulation techniques such as laughter.

Participants will receive an email containing a link to an online evaluation at the end of the conference. Certificates will be issued once the evaluation is completed. The conference must be attended in full to receive a certificate for contact hours.

NurseTim® is accredited as a provider of nursing continuing professional development by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

Speaker:

Dr. Kathryn M. Shaffer

provides creative leadership at Jefferson College of Nursing, driving growth and innovation in nursing education. With more than 30 years of experience as a nurse and more than a decade of transforming nursing curricula, Dr. Shaffer has spearheaded strategic initiatives, including curricular innovation for the pre-licensure undergraduate BSN program. Her forward-thinking approach is exemplified by her co-authored publication, Designing a New Model for Clinical Education: An Innovative Approach, cited by the Josiah Macy Foundation as an exemplar. An accomplished educator and Certified Nurse Educator, Dr. Shaffer has trained more than 5,000 new nurses in trauma-informed care, compassion fatigue, and well-being strategies.
