

2026-2027 Unusual Enrollment History Review

Student Name: _____ Student SCC ID: _____

The U.S. Department of Education has determined you have an Unusual Enrollment History (UEH) and reports you received Federal Pell Grant funds and/or Federal Student Loans at three (3) or more institutions during the past four (4) award years. Federal Regulations require review of your financial aid and academic history to determine eligibility for Federal Student Aid.

The following requirements must be completed and submitted for review to the Financial Aid Office. A determination will be made based on the information reported and documentation submitted.

- Report all schools attended during the 2022-23, 2023-24, 2024-25, and the 2025-26 academic school years.
- Report credit completion at each school by indicating Yes or No. If there were no credits earned for any year, list school year as separate line, and select No. Example: terms with all withdrawals (W) and or fails (F) grades reported.
- If no credits were earned, you must submit a signed, dated statement providing detailed explanation(s) along with substantiating documentation for each occurrence.
- Submit most recent official or unofficial transcripts for each school listed. Transcripts submitted to SCC for admission, registration, or other processes should be reported here: _____.

Submit all documents together as one application packet in order to have your file reviewed.
Information will be reviewed to make a determination according to US Department of Education regulations.
Incomplete, missing information, or insufficient grounds are subject to a denial determination
