

CHOOSE YOU!

Do you want to play a key role in the success of an organization? Are you a natural leader who enjoys solving problems while keeping an eye on the future?

If you're interested in business, our Associate of Applied Science degree in business can put you on the right path to a rewarding career. Our A.A.S. degree will give you a well-rounded education and skillset, and you can customize your electives in areas such as Marketing, Entrepreneurship, Event-Venue Operations, Economics, and/or general business.

If your goal is to transfer your business credits to a four-year institution, our Associate of Arts degree in Accounting, Business or Business Communications will prepare you to do just that.

SCC is the Right Choice

- Learn from exceptional instructors who are experts in their field.
- Take classes in a flexible manner either face-to-face or online (small classes for more individual attention.)
- You'll be introduced to practical business applications that will prepare you for the workplace through our engaged learning approach.
- SCC's Focus Suites, inside the Entrepreneurship Center, provide a valuable resource to students who want to pursue starting their own business.
- Students earn six credit hours in Microsoft Applications and Analytics, acquiring skills in those areas that employers expect.
- You'll also have the opportunity to obtain your Microsoft Office Specialist certification.

The SCC Business program was reaffirmed in 2013 for 10 years. Several instructors at SCC have received the ACBSP Teaching Excellence Award for Region 5. This organization provides a standard for business schools and programs both nationally and internationally. Our program continuously works to maintain accreditation. We update and create new curriculum to meet accreditation standards, providing you with a high-quality program, exceptional classes and a superior learning experience.
