CHOOSE YOU!

SCC's Long Term Care Administration program will prepare you for a leadership role at a long term care community.

If your passion is to care for people of all ages, provide high-quality care and lead your facility to greater heights, this program is for you.

Many program graduates begin their careers in rural settings, where there is a need for nursing home and/or assisted living administrators.

SCC is the Right Choice

- Our Associate of Applied Science degree focuses entirely on long-term care, which is unique among schools that offer the program.
- A Certificate is available for individuals who have an associate degree or higher and need the coursework to meet state requirements.
- Our curriculum emphasizes knowledge and skills you'll need as an administrator, and many real-life situations are brought to the classroom to help students identify solutions and prepare for on-the-job experiences.

More about the program

- Our program is 100% online.
- Choose a focus in Assisted Living Administration or Nursing Home Administration.
- Receive real-world experience by observing best practices and conducting interviews at local and area long-term care facilities.
- This degree meets the education requirements for licensure as a nursing home administrator and exceeds the education requirements for approval as an assisted living administrator in the state of Nebraska.
- Additional requirements must be met in order to obtain a Nursing Home Administrator license.

» This includes completion of a state-approved "administrator-in-training" or mentoring program and passing a national licensing examination.

» These are usually completed after graduation and are not part of this program. Education and training requirements vary from state to state, and it is advisable to check the specific requirements for your state before beginning this or any program of study. In states that require additional formal education, individual courses from this degree program are often accepted as transfer credits.
