Thurs., Feb. 21, 2019 ~ 11:30 a.m.-1 p.m.
SCC Lincoln Campus
8800 O St., ~ Café Commons

The National African American Read-In is the nation's oldest event dedicated to diversity in literature. It was established in 1990 by the Black Caucus of the National Council of Teachers of English to make literacy a significant part of Black History Month.

Stone Cullen Mason Fiction
Rankine Copeland
Walker Morrison Poetry
Baldwin Drama
Marshall Woodson

This event promotes diversity by featuring the public reading of works written by African American authors. This event is open to all, and anyone is welcome to read, regardless of background.

Students or staff interested in reading briefly (1-3 minutes) from a poem, novel, short story, or musical piece by an African American author, please contact Jeanine Jewell at jjewell@southeast.edu.

Attendance to this event is approved for 1.0 hours diversity credit for SCC employees. A/E/D Office
